SIGURD ANDERSON
GOVERNOR

PIERRE

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, it is a generally recognized fact that good mental health is of utmost importance in our daily way of life especially so in these uncertain and challenging times when the responsibility for world peace reaches and affects each and every one of us; and

WHEREAS, significant gains and new medical techniques have brought renewed hope and progress in the treatment of mental disorders; and

WHEREAS, it has been demonstrated that research and effective preventive work in the field of mental hygiene can save thousands of homes from being disrupted; and

WHEREAS, the continued progress and the degree to which we instill within our citizens a consciousness of the importance mental health can contribute in the economic and cultural advancement of our people; and

WHEREAS, public-spirited organizations interested in mental hygiene have selected this period as one to kindle and foster a better understanding of our mental health problems;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota do hereby designate the week of May 2-8, 1951, as a period to observe and do call upon all South Dakota citizens to appropriately note this week in this important field of human endeavor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have Hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 26th day of April, 1951.
